BACCALAUREATE

The baccalaureate service for the winter graduating class will be held in the Auditorium tonight. The Rev. James B. Bradley, pastor of the Mc Gehee Presbyterian Church will deliver the address.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

The Auditorium will be the scene of the baccalaureate service at 8:00 p.m. tonight. The Rev. James B. Bradley of the Mc Gehee Presbyterian Church will address the Rohwer High School midwenter graduates.

The commencement exercises will be held this coming Friday evening at the Auditorium at eight.

We wish to extend our congratulations and best wishes to each member of the graduating class and may you become a fine and most worthy representative of the niser whorever you may go.

There will be no YPCF and CYF meetings tonight.

INSPIRATIONAL PICTURES

Next week, the famous Cecil De Mille's production, "The King of Kings", will be shown in the Auditorium. This great inspirational picture depicting the life of Christ will be shown on January 20-21st. We urge you to tell all your friends and see it next Saturday evening. We are certainly fortunate to have this showing which has been made possible through a friend and the Community Activities section.

Some go to church to take a walk.
Some go to church to laugh and talk.
Some go to church to meetaa friend.
Some go to church their time to spend.
Some to there to dozo and nod,
But the wise go there to worship God.

FROM LOS ANGELES

Dr. Clyde J. Burnett, sup't. of the Pacific Coast Japanese conference of the Free Methodist Church writes: "...thank you very much for the gift you enclosed for the relief needs of the world, which you wished to go through the channels of our denomination. This surly is a magnamimous spirit on the part of the church group in Rohwer, and testifies of the Spirit of Christ that dewlls in your hearts. May the Lord richly bless everyone a very happ y and prosperous New Year, I remain. Sincerely yours." 5119 Longfellow St., Los Angeles, 42, California.

THANK YOU!

We are grateful to Mr. Akira Mori and his helpers who assorted and wrapped gifts for the Sunday School children.

The S. S. supts. and teachers are to be commended for the presentation of programs and distribution of these gifts.

We are deeply indebted and rejoice in expressing our appreciation to the many friends on the outside who thoughtfully sent in gifts that Christmas may be made brighter for the children.

For Sunday School offering: Mr. S. Enomoto and Satoru Toshiyuke.
